Allied Universal®️, a security and facility services company in North America, received a letter of appreciation from the U.S. Department of Justice’s United States Marshals Service. The letter of appreciation was regarding the apprehension of Gerald Hunter, who was #1 on the Most Wanted list of the Drug Enforcement Administration’s (DEA) St. Louis Strike Force’s West Central Region.

Crucial security intelligence

This is due to his suspected role in the illegal trafficking of Fentanyl. Allied Universal’s security team provided crucial intelligence to the U.S. Marshals which led to the successful capture of the fugitive.
With information provided by Allied Universal, Gerald Hunter was recently apprehended by the U.S. Marshalls.

An arrest warrant had been issued for Gerald Hunter, charging him with “conspiracy to distribute and possession with intent to distribute Fentanyl” in 2017. Hunters evaded DEA agents for several years, being described by the DEA and his con-conspirators as a ‘ghost’ who was proficient in separating his name from everything he touched, often being three levels removed.

provided U.S. Marshals with the tactical advantage

In concert with information provided by Allied Universal, Gerald Hunter was recently apprehended by the U.S. Marshalls at an apartment building in Los Angeles, where Allied Universal is the security service provider. Allied Universal personnel provided the U.S. Marshals with the tactical advantage they needed, allowing them to execute their plan and successfully apprehend Hunter.

“This team represents Allied Universal’s Be Phenomenal™ culture which strives for excellence and connects us closer the communities in which we serve,” said Steve Jones, Chairman & CEO of Allied Universal. “The team’s dedication and commitment to safeguarding our communities, as well as the people of our nation, is extremely honorable and courageous.”
You may also be interested in...

Why Biometrics is Key for the New Era of Convenient Workplace Security

The modern working world has evolved dramatically over the last few decades - from how and when we work, to the places we work from. Widespr...

The Ins and Outs of a Successful Security Partnership

The only constant theme for video technology is its constant evolution. Over the last 40 years, cameras have gone from limited view, constan...

Reopening Doors: What Steps Should be Taken to Ensure Safety and Secur...

A total of £1.6 billion worth of goods are reported as 'lost' to in-store theft in supermarkets each year, with figures in...